POSTPONE JURY TRIALS UNTIL JANUARY TERM

The Adams county court this afternoon, upon determining that only two cases were set for trial postponed both of them until the January term.

Judge W. C. Sheely pointed out that with January only two months away, it would entail unnecessary expense now, and the petit jury will be notified not to report.

The grand jury handed up true bills in three cases at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon. In one case, Arthur Huggins, Gettysburg, indicted on a serious charge, was reported to the court as being a fugitive and not likely to appear for trial.

The other two true bills were found against Warful Lescalleet, East Berlin R. D., for fraudulent conversion of property of J. W. Dull, East Berlin.

Only One Civil Suit

One case involved the sale of a horse, and the other of a home-made horse trailer owned by Dull and sold by Lescalleet, it is alleged.

The civil list contained only the case of Ryland Garretson, Bendersville, against Harvey Beamer, an action in trespass growing out of an automobile accident in 1945, and the case of Mervin M. Chronister, Carlisle, against Arthur Graybill, Middletown, an action in trespass also resulting from an automobile accident. Attorneys informed the court that the latter case was being settled.

The jury returned its first findings at 11:05 o'clock this morning when it dismissed the case against Eugene Arnold Smith, McSherrystown, and placed the costs on the prosecutor, Nathaniel C. Miller, of New Oxford. Miller had brought a charge of maliciously damaging a fence, claiming that Smith had taken down a fence to permit a car to turn around and then had replaced the fence, but not as tightly as it was before. The jury found "not a true bill" in the case after hearing Miller's side of the argument.

Two divorces were granted by the county court this morning to: Mary Sanders McGonigal, of Littlestown.

WOMEN TOLD TO PARTICIPATE IN TOWN'S AFFAIRS

Warning that hard work and criticism may be expected, Mrs. J. Stewart Williams, Kingston, Pa., president of the Pennsylvania Federation of Women's Clubs, in an address here Wednesday afternoon before the Gettysburg Woman's club urged women to participate in community affairs.

Speaking on the topic "Facing the Future," and using her theme for the year: "Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace," Mrs. Williams declared that peace must "begin at home."

"Apathy in America must be shaken if peace is to be won. Trying times and opposition make for better living," Mrs. Williams continued, as she indicated the tremendous influence in the hands of organized women's groups which in this state number 275,000 members.

Mrs. Williams spoke at the YWCA building, where she was introduced by the club president, Mrs. Henry M. Scharf. The program was arranged by Mrs. Ralph Z. Oyle, chairman of the legislative department of the club.

The meeting opened with Mrs. John S. Rice leading the women in the "Freedom Pledge."

The following were received as new members: Mrs. Frank Hewettson, Mrs. Jay Johnson, Mrs. Fred Pfeffer, Mrs. M. T. Dill, Mrs. Wallace Fisher, Mrs. George Hill and Mrs. H. D. Hoover. The club accepted with regret the resignation of Mrs. Clyde Lenhart who is moving to Lebanon.

Mrs. Robert Kenworthy announced that the club's germicidal lights fund netted $187.32 from the Clare Tree Major play "Robin Hood," which was given here under club sponsorship.

Mrs. Mark K. Eckert, parliamentarian and chairman of the by-laws revision committee, presented the revised by-laws which were adopted by the club. Among other changes the annual dues are increased to $3. The club voted thanks to Mrs. Eckert and her committee which included Mrs. J. I. Burgoon and Miss Anna I. Cairns.

Announcement was made of the Littlestown Women's Community club meeting for Wednesday evening with a county federation of women's clubs to be formed there.

Mrs. Howard J. McCarney, soloist, and her accompanist, Mrs. S. F. Snyder, presented these selections: "Green Cathedral," by Carl Hahn; "Were My Song with Wings Pro-

Catholic Scouts Get Awards Tonight

Campers medallions and other scouting awards will be presented to Boy Scouts of Troop 78 of St. Francis Xavier church tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the scout room of the church.

Scoutmaster Edward J. Kerrigan and the Rev. Fr. Louis Forgeng, assistant pastor of the church, will make the presentations.

All committee men are urged to be present, and parents of the scouts are also invited to attend.

PITZER TRUCK WRECKED; HITS 3 HOUSES, POLE

A tractor-trailer ran off the Lincoln highway at Thomasville at 11:15 o'clock Wednesday night and hit three houses, tore out two trees and stopped a power pole at the base before coming to rest about 250 feet away to completely block the highway.

The driver was uninjured. Total damage was estimated by state police at $3,000. Traffic in both directions was forced to a complete standstill for about one half hour until the truck was moved.

The truck, which was empty, is owned by H. Earl Pitzer, Aspers.

State policeman Alfred J. Corkran said the driver, Virgil McBee, Aspers R. 1, estimated his speed at about 40 miles per hour at the time of the accident. Corkran said the speed limit for tractor-trailers is 30 miles per hour.

The officer said that McBee told him that just as he passed the railroad tracks he saw a car approaching on his side of the road.

Brakes Failed

According to the patrolman, McBee said he jammed on the brakes, swerved to the right, ran onto the curb when his brakes failed completely.

State Patrolman C. J. Shovlin also reported that the vehicle straddled a stone wall on the property of Burt Altland, knocked down two maple trees there and damaged a rain pipe on the front porch, causing damage estimated by the owner at $200.

The truck then completely demolished the front porch of the home of Roy E. Brillhart, snapped off the telephone pole at the base and tore down a fence, causing damage estimated at $1,000.

At the next house, owned by Samuel Altland and J. Earl Mickley, the truck damaged shrubbery and lattice work on the front porch. The truck then ran back onto the highway and continued 75 feet further, finally straddling the highway.

The policemen said that the undercarriage of the truck was completely wrecked but that the trailer was only slightly damaged. Total damage to the vehicle was estimated at $1,000.

The petitioners had alleged that the election board had counted votes in which stickers were illegally placed on the ballots. The recount showed 10 ballots in which stickers were illegally placed but also showed that the election board had apparently not counted them.

Other officers nominated are as follows:

Recording secretary, Raymond E. Menges; financial secretary, George D. March; treasurer, Joseph E. Codori; chief, James A. Aumen; first assistant chief, Donald Jacobs; second assistant chief, Donald McSherry; chaplain, Clarence Claybaugh; drillmaster, Eugene Sickles; representative to the Southeastern association, Donald Staub.

Vice President George L. Bushman presided in the absence of President Aumen. The department voted to contribute to the Friendship train, and a committee composed of George D. March, S. Richard Eisenhart and Carl Oyer was named to purchase up to $20 worth of spaghetti, macaroni or canned milk to be sent with other Gettysburg contributions to Harrisburg and loaded on the train there for transmission to Europe for the relief of needy persons.

The department also voted $5 to the Adams County Free Library association and $5 to the Civic Nursing association, and voted to purchase $2 worth of stamps from the Adams County Tuberculosis association.

Reserve Hotel Rooms

George D. March, reporting for a committee named a month ago to obtain hotel reservations in Reading for the 1948 state convention, said that accommodations for 75 men were reserved at the Abraham Lincoln hotel in Reading, and will be held by the hotel until confirmed.

CONSIDER DEATH PENALTY IN SEX CRIMES IN PENNA.

Social Happenings

Miss Gwen Louise Jacobs, East Broadway, was entertained at a surprise birthday party on Armistice Day. The following were present: Jean Stoner, Connie Redding, Jane Bigham, Barbara Bushey, Ellen Rice, Margaret Redding, Wilhelmina Knox, Jane Callahan; Elizabeth Heldt, Peggy Warman, Barbara Redding, Louise Collins, Joyce Rummel, Barbara Anzengruber, Ann McHenry, Emily Rosensteel and Eleanor Jacobs.

Harrisburg, Nov. 13 (P)—A recommendation to fix the death penalty for "atrocious sex crimes" was considered today by a sub-committee of the Joint State Government commission.

The recommendation was made by Sen. John W. Lord (R-Phila.) chairman committee studying penal laws and criminal procedure for a report to the 1949 session of the legislature.

"Here's a crime that affects so many people that I think it has to be stamped out by the most severe punishment," Senator Lord said yesterday after a meeting of that committee set up by the General Assembly's continuing research committee.

Suggest Life For Repeaters
"Certainly the gravity of the offense ought to be as severe as our most atrocious crimes, such as murder, or as any other crime on the books," he added. Lord also said that an Allegheny county judge has requested that life imprisonment be imposed upon sex offense repeaters.

Judge Samuel A. Weiss, Pittsburgh, in a letter to the committee suggested a 30-year sentence for the first offense and a life term for second offenders. The present maximum penalty for a sex crime—rape or statutory rape—is 15 years' imprisonment and a $7,000 fine.

"I am firmly convinced that the real solution to the sex crimes that shock the nation is one for the legislature," Judge Weiss wrote.

Sections On Slot Machines

The committee also considered possible changes in the gambling and libel sections of the penal code and the commonwealth's old "Blue Laws."

Lord said the gambling section blocked passage of a proposed new code by the 1947 legislature. He said that under the original proposal the possession or repair of slot machines would have been made a misdemeanor. That, Lord said, would make innocent parties liable to prosecution.

Lord added that the "Blue Laws" may have "all right in 1765 but are out of date in 1947" and ought to be modernized.

Worley Is Vice-Chairman

Assemblyman Francis Worley, of Adams county is vice chairman of the criminal code revision committee of the Joint State Government commission and attended Wednesday's meeting in Harrisburg.

Gambling and libel sections of the revised code submitted to the legislature last term will be up for possible revision. Mr. Worley said and added: "I will be absolutely opposed to liberalizing the bill in favor of the gambling interests, who we are told were responsible for the bill's failure to pass the House last session."

Mr. Worley said the committee will follow a federal uniform criminal procedure pattern within the limits of the state constitution.

In her talk to the clubwomen here, Mrs. Williams reported many of the observations of the national president, Mrs. S. Blair Buck, who recently returned from a tour of European countries. Mrs. Williams is a member of Governor Duff's food conservation committee.

Speaking of the effects of Communism, Mrs. Buck noticed in France and Italy, Mrs. Williams declared: "Communism is a sinister way of living. We must be alert to what is happening, for Communism creeps in subtly and must be specially guarded against in the schools."

Mrs. Williams praised the work of Mrs. R. S. Saby, Gettysburg, for the state federation, and has appointed her to serve for another year as Youth Conservation chairman.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Frederic Grist, chairman; Mrs. Raymond Topper, Mrs. Dunning Idle, Jr., Mrs. William G. Weaver, Mrs. John Roberts, Mrs. Robert Kenworthy and Mrs. John P. Rhoads.

nally released on October 31 as teacher of English, Latin and dramatic coach so she could assume her duties in a similar position in the Chambersburg high school. She will be succeeded by Miss Leora Held, daughter of the Rev. Charles Held, pastor of the Mt. Joy Lutheran church and at present a teacher in the schools of Homer City, near Pittsburgh. Miss Held will assume her duties Monday.

Tuberculosis tests given in the high school under the auspices of the Adams County Tuberculosis society on November 3 to 73 pupils revealed no reaction.

Buy New Desks

Thirty-six desks were purchased from the Arendtsville School District and were placed in the eighth grade.

The seventh grade room was repainted.

The Athletic association acknowledged receipt of three bleachers for the football field from the Littlestown Lions and Rotary clubs and the Eagles.

Mrs. Hamilton Walker, school nurse, reported that during the month she administered 30 first aid treatments made 21 home calls; assisted Dr. Leonard L. Potter with the physical examinations in grades one and three and also assisted Dr. Phillips with the Tuberculosis tests in the high school. Mrs. Walker also reported that all the grade pupils from the first to the sixth were weighed and given a general examination. She also stated that six pupils were wearing glasses since school began as a result of recommendations made in the physical examinations.

The magazine campaign, conducted in the schools, netted $1,862.15.

The receipts for the month included $15,675.90 from the state; $5,757.23 in taxes; and tuition for one or more months from the following townships: Germany, $815.15; Mount Joy, $10.98; Union, $1,246.70, and Mount Pleasant, $517.86.

Bills ordered paid were salaries, $4,838.98; insurance, additional tasks, tax collector's commission, and miscellaneous supplies amounted to $2,092.95.

The Littlestown Ministerium will meet Friday at 4 p.m. in the social hall of Redeemer's church.

The Alta Hummer Missionary society of St. John's Lutheran church packed the clothing Wednesday which they received in their recent clothing drive for the war-torn countries. There were 773 pieces. They were shipped to Easton, Pa., the Lutheran World Service Center, today, from where they will be sent overseas for distribution. The society wishes to express their appreciation to the community as well as to the members of the congregations who made these contributions. They also wish to thank everyone who assisted in the sorting and the packing of these articles of clothing.

The Mason and Dixon Post No. 6954, VFW, scheduled for Tuesday evening, was unable to meet, due to the lack of a quorum. The inclement weather prevented the members from gathering. Their next meeting will be November 25 at 8 p.m. in the post home.

Those present at Wednesday's committee meeting included Howard Waybright, Glenn Trostle, Allen Weikert, John K. Lott; Donald L. Rexrode, field representative, and William Orner, local representative.

RECREATION CENTER TO OPEN SATURDAY

The official opening of the Hotel Gettysburg annex as a recreation center will be held Saturday night, instead of Friday, officials of the Gettysburg Recreation association announced today.

A dance, masquerade parade and similar activities scheduled originally for Friday have been postponed because of the conflict with the high school play, scheduled for Friday evening.

Gettysburg recreation director Paul Witmoyer said that the Friday evening date was chosen without checking on possible conflicting dates and since many of the youngsters who wish to attend the play also want to attend the dance and formal opening the opening was postponed until Saturday.

Road View Ordered

The court approved changes in the appointment of viewers for the laying out of a public road in Tyrone and Butler townships connecting the Gettysburg-Carlisle and the Cranberry-York Springs roads. According to a petition presented this morning the original petition for viewers contained two errors in that it stated the proposed road began in Tyrone township, when actually it begins in Butler township, and the route number of the Cranberry-York Springs road was given as 011 when actually it is 0101. The court permitted the changes and directed the originally listed viewers, Attorney Daniel E. Teeter, W. D. Sheely and Fred C. Riley to conduct the viewing.

An order awarding the real estate in the estate of Sarah Hagerman, late of Conewago township, to the highest bidder, Edward A. Hagerman, was handed down. Hagerman bid $1,250 for the property located in Conewago township.

BISHOP STRICKEN

John P. Petersheim, 74-year-old retired bishop of the Amish faith, died of a heart attack today while attending a wedding at a farm home. He was stricken during the sermon which is to be in the Community Chest plan.

Mrs. Mildred Shover presented the treasurer's report.

SHERIFF WILL FILED

The will of Harry E. Serff, late of East Berlin, has been entered for probate at the office of the county register and recorder. The widow, Minnie H. Serff, East Berlin, is executrix.

ONS, QUAKERS ILLETS AMONG RID CHOICES

By HERB ALTSCHULL

Philadelphia, Nov. 13 (AP)—Well, is it? This is the week that decides the fate of the winning streaks piled by the football forces of Penn State and Pennsylvania.

An old adage in the prognosticating business says never desert aner; so although we can find dozens of reasons why Penn State's loss to Navy and Penn to Army, I call the nod for the home team.

ast week we ran up a 22-8 mark unlike the seasonal percentage to on 143 right choices and 53 wins (eight were ties), and we're still shooting for .750. So here's the down on the major Keystone contests in week number eight:

enn State vs. Navy: The Nittany Lions proved human by barely getting past Temple. Navy is always dangerous. The Lions may be with Elwood Petach, their passing gun. All are danger signals. But Bob Gains boys are not easily daunted, in State.

Army vs. Penn: This game has a of interesting factors. Army will "up" after its defeat by Notre Dame, but Penn probably will be p-per! If there is such a word, numbering the humiliating defeats the past three years. On the behalf that Penn has the stronger in, up, and uppers notwithstanding, we'll take the Red and Blue.

Lock Haven vs. Mansfield: Mansfield Mountaineers are the new iicher college kingpins. That could be enough incentive to insure victory over the very tough lads in Lock Haven, Mansfield.

Pittsburgh vs. Purdue: The lucky Panthers resume the footballirs after a week layoff, and run to the conquerors of Illinois. A instant vote for Purdue.

Mules Over Ayres: Delaware vs. Muhlenberg: The loss Delaware was the only blemish the Muhlenberg escutcheon a ago. The Mules' record already is blotted this year—and once enough, in the opinion of Coach Loy Schwartzwalder, Muhlenberg, West Chester vs. Millersville: This the game the Rams want, to wind up an undefeated season with nine victories. Joe Carozzo and his West Chester mates in a walk.

Geneva vs. Washington and Jefferson: The Presidents have been getting stronger all season. But they haven't reached Geneva's class yet. The galloping jitterbugs to score gain.

Lafayette vs. Fordham: No contest. Lafayette.

Lehigh vs. Carnegie Tech: Like-rise. Lehigh.

Michigan State vs. Temple: Temple is on the upswing. Michigan state is good. The coil goes a-pinning. Michigan State.

Georgetown vs. Villanova (Friday): Those Georgetown boys who toot Villanova's Wildcats are not popular with the football team that plays for the Washington school. The Wildcats in Villanova form will seek their revenge on the gridiron. Villanova.

Other Selections: Indiana vs. Shippensburg: This one might easily be a tie. Both lost decisively in crucial tutor contests a week ago. Since it's being played at Shippensburg, we'll ride with the home forces. S-Burg.

Scranton vs. St. Bonaventure: The Roos took off a week to rest for this one. Scranton.

Swinging around the circuit: Alliance over Clarion (Friday); Califonia over Fairmont (Friday); Grove City over Westminster, Lebanon Valley over PMC; Franklin and Marshall over Ursinus. East Stroudsburg over CCNY, Susquehanna over Allegheny, St. Vincent over Waynesburg, Bloomsburg over Rider, Buffalo over Bucknell, Albright over Juniata, Haverford over Johns Hopkins, Swarthmore over Drexel, Dickinson over Duquesne, Gettysburg over St. Lawrence, Connecticut Teachers' over Kutztown, West Liberty over Edinboro, St. Francis over Adelphi.

PENN STATE IS DEFENSE KING ACROSS NATION

By GAIL FOWLER

New York, Nov. 13 (AP)—The yardsticks—and seven frustrated opponents—still point to Penn State as the nation's gridiron defensive king, but Navy may have something to say about it at Baltimore this Saturday.

The Nittany Lions improved their already stingy total defense record against Temple last Saturday, holding the Owls to 25 yards in 33 plays, all 25 being on the ground and none in the air in the 7-0 mudpie battle which kept Penn State undefeated.

This gave the Lions a yield of only 61.6 yards per game, as against their 67.7 mark of the preceding week, and kept them substantially under Santa Clara's 1937 mark of 69.9.

Decisive Game

In rushing, the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau figures showed the States had held the foe to only 64 yards in 179 attempts in seven games, for an average of 9.1 yards per contest. This reduces to slightly more than one foot, or 12 inches, per assault.

Randall scored a pair of touchdowns for the winners, plumping over from the 2-yard line in both the second and final periods. Duffy passed to Claypool for both extra points.

Walde, sub Canner back, raced 20 yards on an end run to tally for the upper countians in the second quarter.

Randall scored a pair of touchdowns for the winners, plumping over from the 2-yard line in both the second and final periods. Duffy passed to Claypool for both extra points.

In the season just completed Bigler dropped three decisions and tied one.

3 GRID TITLES TO BE DECIDED THIS WEEK-END

By TOM SHIRIVER

Harrisburg, Nov. 13 (P)—Three championships are at stake and several crucial games are listed in other conferences as Pennsylvania's scholastic football teams move into the last two weeks of the 1947 season.

Tyrone, unbeaten and untied leader of the western conference, and Dubois, the only team with a chance to nose out the leaders, meet at Dubois tomorrow night in one of the outstanding games of the week-end.

A victory for Tyrone will enable the Blair county team to close out its season with a record of ten straight victories and join Indiana, Franklin of Cambria county, Clarion, and Burnham, four teams that have already concluded unbeaten seasons.

Franklin has a post-season game to play with Bellwood-Antis to decide two-county honors, won last year by Bellwood as the climax to an unbeaten season. The rivals meet tomorrow to settle this year's championship.

Masontown and Chartiers meet in a third game in which a championship is at stake with the two clubs listed to play for the WPIAL Class B crown at neutral Washington, Pa., tomorrow night.

Other Games

No less than eight Biglerville seniors will be in uniform for the last time, seven of whom are starters.

Practically the entire line will graduate. Mervin Kime and Lee Reinecker, regular ends, and Robert Breighner, sub-end; Jim Pitler, tackle and offensive back, and William Welker, tackle; Charles House

9 GRID TILTS FOR BULLETS NEXT SEASON

Bullet Harriers Trip Mountaineers

Ed Smith paced the Gettysburg cross country team to a 16-39 triumph over Mt. St. Mary's Wednesday afternoon on the local course to successfully climax the first post-war season with three wins in four starts. Smith turned in a 16 minute, 14 second run.

Summary: 1. Smith, G.; T. Merry, G; 3. Yost, G.; 4. Wahl, M.; 6. Ayres, G.; 7. Megale, M.; 8. Naughton, M.; 9. Whipple, G.; 10. Dolan, M.; 11. Fillion, M.

BIGLER SCRUBS LOSE 14-6 TILT

The Biglerville high school scrub football team closed its season Thursday afternoon by dropping a 14-6 decision to the Scotland Orphans school junior varsity at Scotland.

This gave the Lions a yield of only 61.6 yards per game, as against their 67.7 mark of the preceding week, and kept them substantially under Santa Clara's 1937 mark of 69.9.

WILLIAMSBURG FROSH MEET DELAWARE

A light workout is scheduled for the Gettysburg college freshman football team this afternoon in preparation for its final game of the season here Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with the University of Delaware.

Coach Roy Bloomingdale makes no secret this is the game he and his outfit would like to win above all others. Of course, the fact that it is the final game and a victory would mean a perfect season must be counted in on the desire to win.

The Bullets have brushed aside Western Maryland, Albright, Alfred, Delaware, Franklin and Marshall, Haverford, Lafayette, Lehigh, Rutgers, St. Joseph's, Swarthmore, Ursinus and Washington college.

Armistice Day Observance: Armistice Day was marked in the schools of Gettysburg Friday morning with appropriate exercises at each one of them. The Rev. E. H. Jones delivered a short talk at the Lincoln school commemorating the signing of the Armistice nine years ago and at the Mead building exercises marking Armistice Day and also

Thanksgiving were held by the sixth grade pupils taught by Miss Anna

Maor. At the high school Dr. A. E.

Wagner delivered the address. All of the borough schools were dismissed at noon for a vacation which will extend until November 21.

In the evening the American Legion paraded at 7 o'clock, after which appropriate services were held in the post rooms with Dr. M. Had-

BY GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

WONDER AND ADMIRATION

God meant that poets should be born, else he would never have created, for their inspiration, the various and intricate designs in almost everything strewn about the earth.

Note the perfection of beauty in every flower, leaf, tree, and stone.

You cannot walk a foot in nature without stepping upon masterpieces!

It is the wonder and admiration that poets have had for this boundless display that has fed their imagination and that has stirred their muse to create deathless beauty in words. But not alone in books is to be discovered this urge of the heart to give further immortality to beauty. Note the display of poetry in the great buildings and cathedrals of the world.

It was Voltaire, however, who apparently had no poetry in his heart, for he once wrote: "What unhappy remains to us of the architecture and sculpture of the time as a fantastic compound of rudeness and filagree." It took a poetic artist to oppose such a statement. Said the great Michael Angelo, of the doors on the Baptistry at Florence, that they were "beautiful enough to be the doors of Paradise."

How can anyone look into the face of the simplest flower without its exciting his wonder and admiration?

Or look upon the endless varia-

ties of leaves and note their perfection of device and design?

I have visited Grand Canyon of Arizona twice. I thought I would try and write something about it—but I couldn't. It was too breath-taking.

Its moods, its coloring, its mystery, and its silence overwhelmed me. I

STRIKES PLACES MARSEILLE IN TROOPS' HANDS

Marseille, Nov. 13 (AP)—Troops and mobile guards were called out to patrol the streets of Marseille today as Communist labor leaders issued a general strike call following a day of rioting in which one person was fatally wounded and six others hurt.

While the Communists claimed their strike call had met a wide response among factory hands, indications as the day advanced were that workers were sticking to their jobs except in trades in which their unions previously had ordered strikes.

Affected were all seamen, longshoremen and members of the metal, building and chemical workers unions. Some food packers also were reported out.

Shipping Tied Up

All shipping in the port was tied up by the strike, which began as a protest against an increase in street car fares and assumed broader proportions following an arrest of four union demonstrators Monday.

A meeting of the Rhone Delta Central Council of Trade Unions was called for tomorrow to decide whether to heed the Communist appeal for a general strike. An affirmative decision would affect the entire department—an area extending along more than 60 miles of industrial coastline and taking in the inland cities of Arles and Rix.

At least a score of persons, including Mayor Carlini and assistant Mayor Pierre Milani, were injured during yesterday's rioting. Both officials, members of Gen. Charles De Gaulle's rally of the French People (RPPF) which ousted the Communists in recent municipal elections, were beaten by Communist demonstrators and spent the night hospitalized in private clinics.

One Leader Dies

The most serious casualties occurred last night when, according to accounts in the Moderate press, gangster elements operating some bars turned submachine guns on demonstrators who were said to be looting their establishments.

The Communist organ L'Humanité ran a screaming headline saying: "De Gaullists murder Vincent Voullant—29 other patriots wounded by gangster bullets." The paper said the shootings took place "under the protection of (Socialist) Premier Ramadier's prefect."

Voullant, 20, a member of the left-wing union of young French Republicans, was wounded during one of the cafe shootings last night and died several hours later in a hospital.

Riots Started Yesterday

Flour mills workers in France went on strike today when the government failed to meet their demand for a 20 per cent increase in salaries.

Several thousand are employed in the huge mills at Bobigny, Corbeil and near Paris. The minimum wage

Freedom Train Seen
By 10,000 At Scranton

Seranton, Pa., Nov. 13 (AP)—More than 10,000 Scrantonians stood in the cold for as long as three hours to visit the Freedom Train before it left here today for Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

The Freedom Train, carrying the nation's most treasured historical documents, was in Scranton yesterday as the climax of the city's dedication week program. The train came here from Albany, N. Y., and will remain in Wilkes-Barre about 12 hours today.

APPOINT JUDGE

Harrisburg, Nov. 13 (AP)—Governor James H. Duff today appointed Henry X. O'Brien (4499 Browning Road) Pittsburgh, as Judge of the Commonwealth court of the Fifth Judicial district, Allegheny county, for a term expiring the first Monday in January, 1950.

O'Brien was named to the $16,500 post to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge G. Malcolm McDonald.

India Withdraws

Before the 57-nation assembly

meets to these issues in its first session since Nov. 1, delegates will elect a successor to Poland on the security council. India, adlocked with the Soviet Ukraine, rough a long series of ballots,

threw from the race yesterday clear the way for election of the viet state.

An American spokesman refused to say whether the United States delegation which has been supporting India, would switch to the Ukraine or abstain. The election will range the lineup little in the 11-council because Poland has voted with Russia consistently in the now familiar 9 to 2 ballots.

Membership in the council after an 11 would be U. S., Britain, Russia, France, China (the five permanent members with a veto), Syria,

Yugoslavia, Ukraine, Belgium, Cana-

ada, and Argentina. The last two named would start their two-year terms along with the Ukraine. The terms of Columbia, Syria and Belgium run until Jan. 1, 1949.

The assembly also was to elect two more nations to the trusteeship council and indications were that the Philippines and Norway would be chosen. Russia has boycotted the council since it was organized.

The Interim Assembly, which apparently will operate as a 51-nation body instead of 57, would meet within six weeks after adjournment of the regular general assembly for its first session.

News Of Special Interest To The Residents Of Emmitsburg And Vicinity

DRIVE FOR FUNDS FOR FIREMEN TO END THIS WEEK

The drive to raise $3,000 for the Emmitsburg fire company is to come to an end this week-end with the committee in charge hoping by that time to have completed the solicitation and to have reached the campaign goal.

While the amount obtained so far was not announced, the joint committee of the Lions and Fire company in charge reported that the drive "is progressing very well with everybody contributing generously."

The money being raised is to go to pay the balance due on the recently purchased new fire engine of the company, for the purchase of a fire siren and the like. The company now has three pieces of equipment, two fire trucks and a portable pumper purchased from the government.

Company Has Long History

One of the oldest fire companies in this section, if not the oldest, the Emmitsburg company was organized prior to 1829, the date of the earliest record available. The record, still in the archives, states: "John Bader — You are hereby requested to be present at the engine house in Emmitsburg on the 4th Saturday of May, June, July and August, precisely at 2 o'clock, P.M., with buckets and other requisites for company training, May 25th, 1829. By the president, William Mooney, C.P."

In 1840 a corporation ordinance requiring every able man to become a member of the fire company was passed. For non-compliance a fine was imposed. The records list 141 men as members of the company in that year.

In 1850 the company secured a suction pump, apparently its first piece of equipment other than the buckets used by the group in its earlier days. In 1863 the town had its most destructive fire, but the fire company gave a good account of itself. Fire plugs were installed in the town in 1884 after organization of the Emmitsburg Water company.

Has 45 Members

In 1885 the Vigilant Hose company adopted written constitution and incorporated under the laws of Maryland, and in March, 1910, it amended its constitution to permit the company to purchase and own real estate and other property. That year it purchased Firemen's field.

The present engine house was purchased for $4,500 in 1920 and nine years later a drive was conducted to raise money for a fire engine. As a result of that drive a Ford truck and equipment were purchased for $3,185. Additions were made to the fire engine house in 1931 with the kitchen, meeting room, heat and light system, town jail and the like added to the original structure.

Since that time other changes have been made to the fire hall, new fire fighting equipment has been bought and the company has remained in the forefront as one of the best fire companies in this section.

At present the company has about 45 active members. Charles F. Troxell is president of the company, J. W. Rowe, vice president; Norman Z. Hoke, secretary; R. S. Sperry, acting treasurer; Herbert W. Roger, chief; John Hollinger, assistant chief; John J. Hollinger, Henry Gerken, Hubert White, George Ashbaugh, R. S. Sperry, truck drivers; C. A. Harner, C. G. Frailey, George E. Eyster, R. S. Sperry and President Troxell, directors.

LEGION HOLDS PARTY

The Emmitsburg American Legion post celebrated Armistice Day Tuesday with a stag party held at the post home with 50 present. The next meeting of the post will be held December 2.

EX-OFFICER IS LIONS' SPEAKER

Emmitsburg

Emmitsburg — James Sanders of Washington visited during the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Clarence Sanders.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Bower and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bollinger visited Mr. and Mrs. Halbert Poole, Jr. and family of Potomac, Md., on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Zentz left Tuesday morning to attend the National Grange meeting at Columbus, Ohio.

Members of the Fairfield Lions club, five Lions from the Uptown Baltimore Lions club and four members from the Union Bridge club were present for the session.

Captain West, a veteran of both World Wars, told the group that "You can take men and in six weeks train them to take care of themselves, but you cannot instill in them that period of time the discipline that is necessary to win wars."

Because of that need for discipline among soldiers, "a discipline by which a man will stay on a spot where he is almost certain to meet death, a year's training is necessary. Nor does this seem too much to ask. As a citizen a man should be willing to give 365 days out of his life as a safeguard against war," the army officer said.

Captain West added that in his opinion, "the atom bomb will be the same as gas was in this war. It is so devastating that both sides will fear to use it because of the fear of retaliation."

Masons Win Plaque At Corn Husking Bee

Tyrian Lodge No. 205 of Emmitsburg Tuesday was awarded a bronze plaque, the first prize, for having the largest percentage of members present at the annual corn husking held by Masonic lodges of Maryland and Delaware at Boni Blink, Masonic home for the aged, near Cockeysville, Md.

Following the annual custom, the lodge members gathered at the home early on Armistice Day to husk the 40 acres of corn on the farm connected with the home. A total of 2,910 men, the second largest attendance in the history of the annual cornhusking, were present. They began their work in the fields at 6:30 o'clock in the morning and completed husking the corn by 9 o'clock that morning.

Charles Sharer, master of Tyrian lodge, headed the Emmitsburg delegation to Boni Blink.

XMAS GROUP MAKES PLANS

The Christmas celebration committee recently appointed by President L. D. Beegle of the Emmitsburg Lions club got off to a good start with a meeting held after the regular club meeting Monday night.

The following sub-committee for the Christmas celebration were appointed: Program, John Hollinger; Philip Bower, Harold Hoke, George Wilhite; advertisement: Thomas Gingell, D. L. Beegle, Robert Daugherty; publicity: J. J. Dillon, A. L. Leahy, Philip Bower; decorating: John Payne, Herbert Rogers, Morris Zentz, Charles Troxell; treat: Charles Harner.

An invitation is being extended to the Emmitsburg veterans' organizations and the Women's club to cooperate in planning and promoting this annual Christmas celebration in Emmitsburg.

The next meeting of the committee together with all the sub-committees is announced for Friday night, November 21, at the firemen's hall at 8 o'clock.

Elias Lutheran church October 5 to 12 amounted to $764.36. Total expenses of the celebration were $409.08, leaving a balance of $355.28 which amount has been turned over to the church treasurer by Mrs. Charles Linn who was treasurer of the Anniversary fund.

'PREMATURE' IS LABEL LIKELY ON DEGAULLE CALL

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

Erie, Pa., Nov. 13 (AP)—The Pennsylvania railroad has suspended four firemen for two days without pay for contributing to Erie's smoke problem.

Elli May, Erie Smoke Control director, said yesterday the four were suspended by the railroad for permitting their engines to emit too much smoke while traveling through the city.

A spokesman for the railroad said Pennsylvania locomotives are equipped with overfire steam jets to control the amount of smoke and that the men had failed to use these.

One would expect the first reaction to be one of gratification that this powerful personality should be throwing his re-born political leadership into the battle to help stem the Red tide's rise against western Europe. The other democracies certainly need the all-out support of France, and General DeGaulle won a smashing victory in the recent elections with his new party—the "Rally of the French People" (RPP)—although he has no position in the government.

However, this first reaction most certainly is bound to be followed in many circles by anxious questions. For one thing, some of General DeGaulle's opponents in France charge that he has dictatorial ambitions, and there has been some uneasiness over this in the chancelleries of Allied capitals.

Eve of Conference
But there is another consideration which is of more immediate concern. DeGaulle's proposal comes almost on the eve of the Big Four foreign ministers' conference in London to try to draw up a German peace treaty. Hopes of reconciling the differences between Russia on the one hand and the American-British-French trio on the other are slim as it is, and were DeGaulle's proposal for alliances against Communism accepted forthwith, it would preclude all hope of an agreement in the London conference. Then the fat would be in the fire.

So I believe the democracies will regard the general's idea as premature, to say the least. And one would expect them to continue so to regard it so long as there remains any hope for agreement with Russia over Germany. The consequences of a complete break between the Soviet Union and the democracies would be grave in the extreme.

While things look gloomy for the foreign ministers' conference, which is scheduled for the 25th of this month, it can't be written off this far in advance. It may be that it will concern itself mainly with Austria—that Russia may stall to see how the Marshall program works.

Elli May, Erie Smoke Control director, said yesterday the four were suspended by the railroad for permitting their engines to emit too much smoke while traveling through the city.

A spokesman for the railroad said Pennsylvania locomotives are equipped with overfire steam jets to control the amount of smoke and that the men had failed to use these.

out. There is always a possibility that if the conference were only a partial failure, there might be another. Diplomatic circles in some western capitals believe that Russia is likely to try to prevent a complete rupture.

One would expect the first reaction to be one of gratification that this powerful personality should be throwing his re-born political leadership into the battle to help stem the Red tide's rise against western Europe. The other democracies certainly need the all-out support of France, and General DeGaulle won a smashing victory in the recent elections with his new party—the "Rally of the French People" (RPP)—although he has no position in the government.

However, this first reaction most certainly is bound to be followed in many circles by anxious questions. For one thing, some of General DeGaulle's opponents in France charge that he has dictatorial ambitions, and there has been some uneasiness over this in the chancelleries of Allied capitals.

Eve of Conference

But there is another consideration which is of more immediate concern. DeGaulle's proposal comes almost on the eve of the Big Four foreign ministers' conference in London to try to draw up a German peace treaty. Hopes of reconciling the differences between Russia on the one hand and the American-British-French trio on the other are slim as it is, and were DeGaulle's proposal for alliances against Communism accepted forthwith, it would preclude all hope of an agreement in the London conference. Then the fat would be in the fire.

So I believe the democracies will regard the general's idea as premature, to say the least. And one would expect them to continue so to regard it so long as there remains any hope for agreement with Russia over Germany. The consequences of a complete break between the Soviet Union and the democracies would be grave in the extreme.

While things look gloomy for the foreign ministers' conference, which is scheduled for the 25th of this month, it can't be written off this far in advance. It may be that it will concern itself mainly with Austria—that Russia may stall to see how the Marshall program works.

'LENIENT' PLAN ON FOREIGN AID BEING OPPOSED

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

Washington, Nov. 13 (P) — The Truman administration's plea for a "lenient Charter" for foreign aid bumped into a determination among some house Republicans today to make the program as "rigid and inflexible" as possible.

The resultant tightening up job in the foreign affairs committee thus may delay not only formal introduction but house action on the $597,000,000 emergency bill the administration is plugging. It is designed to carry France, Italy and Austria over the winter hump until a long range European recovery program can be put into operation.

Chairman Eaton (R-N. J.) had hoped to offer the stop-gap bill as soon as congress opens its special session Monday and then rush the measure to the house for debate by next Wednesday.

But Rep. Vorys (R-Ohio) told reporters: "I can't imagine the wheels turning that fast."

Vorys and Rep. Fulton (R-Pa.), both members of the foreign affairs committee, gave the tip-off that a tightening up process is in the offing.

And it was learned that at least one member has told a top state department official that any bill written by the committee will be as "rigid and inflexible" as possible. The idea, this official was told, is not to sabotage the program or make it unworkable but to eliminate generalities and broad grants of power.

Fulton objected yesterday, during questioning of undersecretary of State Robert A. Lovett, to one section of the proposed emergency bill. It would authorize help in the form of food, fuel and "other commodities" needed by the three European countries. Fulton said "other commodities" is too broad.

AP News Service

Chapter 31 Sheriff Worth said: "Reckon I come in about the nick of time. You look peaked, Andy."

Brant put his hand to his head and brought it away bloody. He looked at Quarfield who was sitting up, staring at his dangling right wrist.

"You broke it," he said stupidly. "Be glad I didn't break your neck. I got a mean temper when it comes to handling murderers."

Carol leaned weakly in the doorway. She was trembling and Brant was afraid she was going to cry.

"Did he hurt you, Carol?" he asked anxiously.

She shook her head. "No. Not him."

"How did you happen to be here with him?"

"I was in the hotel and saw Glenn coming down the stairs. He said he wanted to see me here about something."

"There you are, Ed," said Brant. "Quarfield slipped upstairs and killed Rigby the minute the coast was clear. Not a soul knew he had been in the hotel except Carol. He thought he would be safe if he could kill her."

"Then Quarfield was in on the blackmail scheme?"

"He invited himself in." Brant got to his feet and rested his weight against the composing stone. "Let me tell you how I see it. We know why Crane sent for Rigby and how their original scheme took on new trimmings when Crane saw a chance to make Mac look like a murderer."

"That night Quarfield and Lola saw someone near the mill. Quarfield tried later to make us think it was Al Nowka and Lola was willing to back him up. Actually Lola hadn't been going to collect 25 grand on Monday. Crane said they'd scram soon as the money was paid—get a car and head for another part of the country. Crane said he was in a hurry, because he'd had to kill Charlie King and didn't want to be nailed for it.

"Crane had been afraid King would double-cross him. He followed King to the mill, heard the shot that got Macfarlane and saw King run out. When Crane found out what had happened he hit King with a hammer and choked him."

"I waited till Rigby went away, then tapped on the window and called Crane outside. All I wanted was to have an understanding with him, but the first thing he did was to try to slug me with a hammer. I took it away from him and slugged him instead. Then I threw the hammer away and shoved him down in the snow."

"That brings us to Rigby," said Worth. "Did I warn you that anything you say can be used against you?"

"It don't matter. I knew I'd have to kill Rigby to be safe, but I wanted to wait till he'd get the 25 grand, so I could be safe and rich, too."

Rigby had propositioned Mac and

"But when you dug up Crane I knew I could kiss that dough good-by. My only chance was to kill Rigby before you started asking him questions, because he'd put the finger on me. Ever since I left the courthouse I've been hanging around the hotel, watching for a chance to get out."

Brant could think of only one small item remaining unexplained. What had taken Carol into the Northland Hotel at the precise moment Quarfield had chosen for his escape? He turned to ask her, and was surprised to find that she was no longer in the room.

Thrusting his hands into his pockets, Brant's fingers touched the envelope he had found under his door and had not opened. He brought it forth and read the brief note within.

He caught the platform of the last car as it slid out of the station.

Dear Andy: Sorry I was such a fool, but it was partly your fault for not making yourself clearer, so don't laugh at me too much. You can keep up the game by telling Mac I've gone to Detroit to buy my trousseau, and he'll be all healed up before he learns I'm not coming back. With all my heart I wish you happiness and success.

Brant could think of only one small item remaining unexplained. What had taken Carol into the Northland Hotel at the precise moment Quarfield had chosen for his escape?

He turned to ask her, and was surprised to find that she was no longer in the room.

Thrusting his hands into his pockets, Brant's fingers touched the envelope he had found under his door and had not opened. He brought it forth and read the brief note within.

He caught the platform of the last car as it slid out of the station.

Stumbling through the narrow aisle, pulling himself along by the brass handles on the backs of the red plush seats, he looked for a saucy green hat. He found it in the last one he entered.

They jumped together. The snowbank slapped them violently, rolled them over and opened to receive them. The train rumbled on, shrinking down the track as they lay embraced. There was as much snow inside their garments as upon them, turning to ice water against their arms and legs and bodies, but they did not care.

MOST CITIES KEEP SEPARATE METER RECORD

State College, Nov. 13.—What happens to the penny, or the nickel, you drop into your parking meter?

According to a survey conducted by Charles F. LeeDecker, executive secretary of the Institute of Local Government at the Pennsylvania State college, slightly more than half of the 149 Pennsylvania communities having meters maintain special parking meter funds for the deposit of receipts.

Ninety-five communities, the survey indicated, transfer receipts to the general fund and therefore are not able to identify specific purposes for the expenditure of the parking meter receipts.

Hanover Gets Best Return

In 46 cities, however, the meter receipts were spent for traffic regulation, in 25 places on police activities, and in eight municipalities, parts of the receipts were used for

"Puss" Returns After Visit Of More Than Year

municipal parking lots.

During 1946, parking meters in Pennsylvania brought $1,851,000 to city treasuries. This amount represented an increase of 59 per cent over receipts for 1945. "It appears," LeeDecker says, "that after a temporary leveling off during the war, meter receipts are again resuming their upward trend and should easily exceed $2,000,000 in 1947."

In 1946, the average receipts per meter ranged from $8.31 in Carbondale to $103.73 in Hanover. The average per meter for the state was $61.37. The survey also showed the receipts per capita ranged from 12 cents in Carbondale to $4.56 in Kittanning.

"Little Puss" is home to stay. The Lippys say they won't part with it again.

as though the five months had been but a day.

The Lippys acquired a pet canary several months ago and the cat was a constant threat, so it was taken to Woodcrest Orchards south of Fairfield, a farm formerly owned by John D. Lippy, Sr.

When they let the cat out of the car, it made a bee-line for the orchards, and was never seen again at the farm.

Came Home Hungry

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. John D. Lippy, Jr., looked out of the kitchen window at their home here, and saw "Little Puss" sitting on the outside window ledge, a spot favored by the cat during the five years they had it before taking it to the farm.

When Mrs. Lippy opened the door, the cat went to its favorite spot in the kitchen, on a radiator where it used to sleep. Later "Little Puss" made a meal of a can of sardines.

The Lippys describe the cat as "of the Manx breed which originated on the Isle of Manx, born without a tail, and half cat and half rabbit." They got the cat when it was a small kitten.

"Little Puss" is home to stay. The Lippys say they won't part with it again.

Prisoners Pledge Pay For Hospital

Bellefonte, Pa., Nov. 13 (P)—Seven hundred prisoners at the Rockview state prison farm have pledged from 30 to 30 days' pay each toward the $650,000 fund raising campaign of the Centre county hospital.

J. W. Claudy, prison farm superintendent, said yesterday the men paid at the rate of 10 cents a day—made the offer voluntary. Eight prisoners, he said, pledged 50 days' pay and most of the remainder a month's pay.

QUESTIONS ON EUROPEAN AID ARE ANSWERED

BY JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Nov. 13 (P)—You've probably asked yourself or your neighbor this question: "Why should we keep on giving aid to Europe, particularly under the Marshall plan? That plan calls for shelling out help for the next four years at a cost of maybe $20,000,000,000. Why should we take on something like that?"

An answer to that is given by the special committee which President Truman appointed to study our ability to help Europe.

This committee of 19 citizens, headed by Secretary of Commerce Harriman, gave these three reasons:

1. Political—to stop Communism.
2. Economic—to help Europe and, by doing so, to help ourselves, too.
3. Humanitarian—to help people in distress.

What The Committee Said

This is what the committee had to say on each:

Political—

The countries of Eastern Europe are dominated by Russia. We don't want the countries of Western Europe to turn Communist or come under Russian control. It's in our own interest to see that this doesn't happen.

If the countries of Western Europe can become prosperous, there's less chance they'll turn to Communism.

Right now those Western European countries which look to America for help are democratic. And the people in them are free. But the committee says: "These countries of Western Europe cannot continue to play this role unaided."

"If by democratic means they do soon obtain an improvement in their affairs, they may be driven to turn

HIGHWAY MURDER BRINGS INDICTMENT

Hagerstown, Md., Nov. 13 (P)—Roy Ridenour, 34, Martinsburg, W. Va., was indicted on a murder charge by a Washington county grand jury today in connection with the death of Charles Taylor, 45, said to have been slain last July in an argument over a gambling debt.

Ridenour was arrested by Baltimore police three days after Taylor was shot on a highway near here. He has been confined to the Washington county jail since.

in the opposite direction. Therein lies the strength of the Communists not soon get an improvement in their Economic—

Our economic self-interest—which means our prosperity—is tied in with the prosperity of Europe.

Moral Questions Involved

Trade with Europe has always been of the greatest importance to us. If the ability of the 270,000,000 people in Western and Central Europe to regain prosperity declines, it will have a big effect on us.

By ability to regain prosperity is meant their ability to produce things they need and things they can sell to us so they can buy from us other things need.

Humanitarian—

Millions of Europeans will be cold and hungry this winter, the committee says, and "To withhold our aid would be to violate every moral precept associated with our free government and free institutions."

Approximately 25 million man-days of work were lost in the United States as the result of fires during 1946.

GOP WOMEN ARE URGED TO NAIL 'FALSE' STORIES

Harrisburg, Nov. 13 (P)—Governor James H. Duff says Republican leaders should start now refuting "preposterous" charges that the GOP is responsible for high prices "when just the opposite is true."

Predicting the election of a Republican President in 1948 if the public is given the truth," Duff told the Pennsylvania Council of Republican Women last night that $20,000,000 already has been spent by America for the rehabilitation of Europe and expenditure of from $17,500,000,000 to $20,000,000,000 more is proposed.

Speaking on the same subject at a session of the 25th annual convention on national affairs, G. Mason Owlett, Republican national committeeman from Pennsylvania and president of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers Association, said "The basic reason for the high cost of living today is inflation" which he added was "made inevitable by New Deal monetary policies."

"Because of the New Deal lavish

Commission To Decide About Bell

Cleveland, Nov. 13 (P)—The Cleveland Boxing commission meets today to determine whether Tommy Bell, Youngstown, Ohio, welterweight, spending and deficit finance methods, the volume of money in circulation increased from five billion in 1933 and seven billion, six hundred million in 1939 to more than continued in a prepared address.

"fought the fight he's capable of" in scoring an unpopular 10-round decision over Bill Cooper, of East Madison, N. J., last night.

Purses of both fighters were held up pending the meeting. Boxing Commission Chairman Andy Peika said, Bell, who tentatively has been scheduled for a world title match here January 6 with Ray "Sugar" Robinson, lost two rounds to Cooper because of low punches. He floored the easterner in the fifth for a count of nine.

QUESTIONS ON EUROPEAN AID ARE ANSWERED

BY JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Nov. 13 (P)—You've probably asked yourself or your neighbor this question: "Why should we keep on giving aid to Europe, particularly under the Marshall plan? That plan calls for shelling out help for the next four years at a cost of maybe $20,000,000,000. Why should we take on something like that?"

An answer to that is given by the special committee which President Truman appointed to study our ability to help Europe.

This committee of 19 citizens, headed by Secretary of Commerce Harriman, gave these three reasons:

1. Political—to stop Communism.
2. Economic—to help Europe and, by doing so, to help ourselves, too.
3. Humanitarian—to help people in distress.

What The Committee Said

This is what the committee had to say on each:

Political—

The countries of Eastern Europe are dominated by Russia. We don't want the countries of Western Europe to turn Communist or come under Russian control. It's in our own interest to see that this doesn't happen.

If the countries of Western Europe can become prosperous, there's less chance they'll turn to Communism.

Right now those Western European countries which look to America for help are democratic. And the people in them are free. But the committee says: "These countries of Western Europe cannot continue to play this role unaided."

"If by democratic means they do soon obtain an improvement in their affairs, they may be driven to turn

NEW ZEALAND GIRL TRIES TO HOLD UP WOMAN

Philadelphia, Nov. 13 (AP)—A pretty 20-year-old New Zealand girl who traveled 8,000 miles to marry a navy veteran she found jailed for burglary is under arrest today after Detective John Thornberry said she attempted to hold up her former landlady with a toy pistol.

Thornberry said Mrs. Norma Pohe Grishkin was charged with holdup and attempted robbery after she was seized last night in a rooming house owned by Mrs. Sally Ruhwadel.

The detective quoted Mrs. Ruhwadel as saying the girl appeared at her rooming house and, after asking if any rooms were available displayed a toy gun. Mrs. Ruhwadel seized the girl's arm and held her while several men roomers summoned police. Thornberry said.

Stranded And Lonely

Mrs. Grishkin told police she met John Grishkin, 24, while he was serving with the navy in New Zealand, Thornberry said. She later came to this country only to find Grishkin was being held on burglary charges.

The girl made a courtroom appeal for Grishkin and Judge Curtis Boik deferred sentence pending further investigation of the case. Thornberry said.

Last September, the detective said, Grishkin—by that time married to Norma—was arrested in connection with several safe robberies and was sentenced to from five to 10 years in the Eastern State Penitentiary here.

Norma told Thornberry she was stranded, lonely and desperate when she entered Mrs. Ruhwadel's rooming house last night; the detective said.

Littlestown

Littlestown—A surprise birthday party was held for Mary Gail Gouker on Saturday by her parents Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gouker, at their home on Cemetery street, in honor of Mary Gail's sixth birthday. Games were enjoyed by the children present and refreshments served. A large birthday cake, baked by the guest of honor's uncle, David Kammerer, occupied the center of the table. Favors were presented to the guests, representing the various nursery rhymes. Mary Gail was the recipient of many gifts. The following were present at the party: Julie Ann Kammerer, Janice, Joyce and Judith Breighner, Audrey Gladhill, Janet Koonin, Betty Wallie, Victoria Newman, Judy Long, John Reynolds, Gary Arter, Kenneth Hollinger and Herbert Patterson of town, and William Rohrbaugh and Carolyn Gouker of Hanover, and Mary Catherine Kammerer, Marysville.

The monthly meeting of the Girls' Guild of St. Paul's Lutheran church was held on Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Betty Eyer, Cemetery street. The meeting opened with the singing of "God Bless America"; poems were read by Ruth Staub and Ruth Bucher, and the group joined in singing "Onward Christian Soldiers." Mrs. Walter Groce was in charge of the lesson, the theme of which was "Light in the Darkness." Scripture was read in keeping with the lesson. The guess package, given by Mrs. Groce, was enjoyed by Jean Bish. Bible Lotto was enjoyed by those present, with gifts being presented to Jane Miller, Ruth Staub and Jean Bish. Plans were discussed for the annual Christmas party to be held in connection with the regular meeting on Tuesday evening, December 9, at the home of Miss Ruth Staub. One new member, Miss Jean Bish, was received into the organization. Refreshments were served to the group.

SAYS US MUST
SAVE AT HOME

Lancaster, Pa., Nov. 13 (AP)—The United States must curtail expenses at home, "if we are to spend billions in Europe," says U. S. Senator Edward Martin (R-Pa.).

The former governor of Pennsylvania, in a speech at the 56th anniversary dinner of the Hamilton Watch company last night, declared this country "can not continue on great projects of health, education, food control, airports and roads and spend the same number of billions in foreign relief."

"There is a limit to our financial resources," Senator Martin said. "We must place a limit on our expenditures. Governments can go bankrupt the same as individuals—and the only receiver for a bankrupt nation is a dictator of some order."

The United States is now filled with minority factions, Senator Martin continued, "many of whom advocate foreign ideologies contrary to our American way of life."

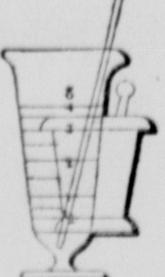

"These organizations strive for power," he said. "They would control labor organizations, schools and even churches. They are insidious in their methods. They use everything possible to further their interests, such as strikes, hate propaganda and the ballot."

Egypt's 13,500 square miles of irrigated land produce two or three crops a year.

Only 3.5 per cent of Egypt's 386,000 square miles are cultivated.

AN HONEST ANSWER

★ Medical ethics are not something unique and set apart, but simply a direct application of the Golden Rule. They provide an honest answer to the question, "What is best for the patient?" As one physician put it, "I do for my patients what I would do for a member of my own family."

As pharmacists, we adhere to the same code. The quality of our medicines and service is the best it is possible to give. You, the patient, are our first concern.
